EVAN TO PLAY U. TURKEY DAY

ton and Buckhannon Teams to Be an Attraction.

ANNON, Nov. 14.—The big day of football of the present season as Charleston and adjacents are concerned, will take place on Thanksgiving day. It is one big football day of every year. Thanksgiving Day, the annual Wesleyan College will play with Catholic University of America. Also one of the preliminaries which could be has been carded in Charleston and Buckhannon. High school eleven have been for a number of years and meet on Thanksgiving they created by what is promised record breaking attendance in Virginia athletics.

ton has an excellent eleven not tasted of defeat this season. Charleston has a strong team and has, like Charleston, both eleven will have into some hard clashes prior to Thanksgiving and it would be no to see one or both of the teams even break with their opposition before the day of in Charleston on Turkey

Day. Neither high school eleven is very heavy. Charleston HI is exceptionally light, there being not a single high school eleven in the state so short in avoidable as the capital city leads. Yet they are fighters and if they come thru the hard Huntington HI game on this Saturday with a victory, it behooves Buckhannon HI to put up a great fight in order to be on a par with them in the Thanksgiving clash. Buckhannon has a snappy eleven with such stars as the Flannigan brothers and others, will give Charleston a hot game. Charleston is coached by R. J. Gorman and Buckhannon is coached by Keilil Rosa, both extremely strong high school mentors and reputed to be there with the cunningness which it takes to win football games nowadays.

Wesleyan and Catholic have excellent records and both are confident of winning the Charleston game. Aside from the Marietta game Wesleyan has had the best season in her history. On the other hand Catholic University started out very weak but has developed until the Charleston game has become one much feared by Wesleyan. When the game was scheduled it was thought that Wesleyan would be a favorite by three or four touchdowns—those dreams were as dopey as all of the other football dope of this section.

Great Demand for Turkey Day Tickets

It was a wild day at Marlin's today. All day long football fans crowded into the store and demanded seats for the big Thanksgiving game at Morgantown. Three hundred additional seats were secured yesterday and all are sold. This afternoon a third allotment of pasteboards is on its way and will be here possibly tomorrow.

It was learned yesterday that a woman in Morgantown called Martin trying to buy a seat for the game, declaring that not another ticket could be had in Morgantown. Persons in Clarksburg and Weston were also trying to buy tickets in Fairmont via telephone.

The tickets being disposed of today are for the new section on the hill directly in the rear of the student section and give a good view of the field.
